2. OBJECTIVES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

Objectives

The aim of the course is to provide students with basic skills and knowledge so that they reach A1.2 level (CEFR) in Hungarian by the end of their two-semester studies. By the end of the first semester, students will be able to communicate in basic situations, and acquire the most important cultural skills necessary for establishing daily contacts. Also, they will become open to Hungarian culture and society.

Academic results

Knowledge

1. The student is familiar with the Hungarian alphabet, aware of the phenomenon of vowel harmony and knows the most basic rules of Hungarian grammar (definite articles, word order of questions and answers, basics of declension, expression of possession, multiple nouns, etc.).
2. S/he knows the basic rules of polite behaviour.
3. S/he has basic knowledge of everyday Hungarian culture (food, drinks, sights).

Skills

1. S/he can get along in basic situations, ask for help, get information in everyday situations.
2. S/he understands the basic words and conversation topics in relation to his/her person or objects in his/her immediate surroundings, provided that s/he is spoken to slowly and clearly.
3. S/he can read simple sentences and understands, with some help, the basic messages of very short, informative texts (invitations, programs, etc.) about location and time.
4. S/he is capable of basic verbal communication, can ask and answer simple questions.
5. S/he can express his/her basic needs. S/he can fill in personal data (name, address and nationality) in a given form.

Attitude

1. S/he understands and accepts the intercultural characteristics of everyday life in Hungary.

Independence and responsibility

1. S/he knows the basic strategies of autonomous language learning, and takes an active role in his/her own learning process.

Teaching methodology

The course is based on blended learning: with two contact hours per week (2*45 min) and two hours of autonomous learning (2*45min), where students rely on materials provided by their teacher. In order to increase talking time during contact hours, team and group work methods are applied.

Materials supporting learning

- Kurzuskönyv / Textbook: Szita Szilvia – Pelcz Katalin, MagyarOK Kompakt, Pécsi Tudományegyetem, 2020 (1.-4. fejezet)
